

St. Valentine's day POEMS

Doubt the light of the stars,
That the sun is warm,
Even doubt the truth,
But trust my love.

There is no pretending,
I love you!

And I will love you until I die,
And if is life after that,
I'll love you then!

True love is that which the wind does not take and the distance does not separate.

I will always have this piece of my heart that smiles whenever I think about you.

Life without love is...

a book without letters,

a spring without flowers,

a painting without colours.

We talk about friendship,
We even swore love, are such,
Simple gestures, how to offer a flower,

We write beautiful letters, we say what we feel,
We are still children!

In the sky I choose a star
In the garden I choose a flower
On the earth I choose you,
To be my great love.

As long as the world goes world
As long as the earth spins
As long as there is a second
I will not stop loving you.
